ABOUT THE Developer

Bima Properties Group Ltd. is a Vancouver and Burnaby based developer that has been active in the lower mainland for over 25 years. Innovation, quality workmanship, and sustainability is the forefront of the developers principles. Bima Properties is a family owned development firm founded over two decades ago in an effort to build homes in growing communities throughout Metro Vancouver that would have a lasting legacy for our customers and still have value tomorrow.

Our success in understanding the development process has led to fostering partnerships with many people involved in municipalities, construction companies, real estate sales and investments .

We strive to create a distinct home with not only functionality and sustainability in focus, but with contemporary designs where space is created with innovation, and luxury and high end quality is the foundation of a Bima Built Home.

Authenticity creates a competitive advantage for our partners as our homes are built with dedication and expertise.
